Mission

Making new disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.

God's vision for Northwest Hills UMC is that we be the active presence of the Kingdom of God in our community. We will live out that vision by offering the life-changing love of Jesus Christ through energetic outreach, vibrant worship, compassionate service, and intentional faith development.

Vision

No Jesus?

I expect that you have seen the bumper sticker which reads "No Jesus, No Peace – Know Jesus, Know Peace." Or perhaps some of the others that are particularly present at this time of year: "Keep Christ in Christmas" or "It's Merry CHRISTmas!"

Of course, as Christians, we can relate to the point of these pithy statements. We are familiar with the modern tendency to secularize everything; even sacred holidays (read "holydays"). But for most of us it still is difficult to imagine Christmas without Christ. It is difficult to imagine a holiday season in which we didn't experience and share the joy of Jesus' birth. Yet, if we allow ourselves a moment to stop and think about it, in many ways that is the prospect that far too many of our neighbors and acquaintances face at this time of year.

Our tendency automatically is to assume that all of our friends and neighbors are Christians and that they already are connected with a family of faith. But statistics and surveys reveal that just isn't the case. A lot of the people we know, in reality, have little or no faith background. And of those who do, many are not active in their faith. Such people often are referred to as "nominal" Christians. They may have been active in a church at one time in their life, but are no longer. To many of them, Jesus is not a present and active part of their life. They may experience occasional "stirrings" to return to an active life of faith, but many resist those impulses because of a mistaken notion that, since they have turned their back on God, He has turned His back on them. So they continue through their life with an unfulfilled longing to return to the Lord, allowing their false notion of God's abandonment of them to keep them from responding to His stirrings. The number of such people is staggering. In fact, the situation I've described is so prevalent that I safely can say that you personally know several people for whom that is true.

For them, Christmas truly is lacking Christ. They may know the story of Jesus' birth. They may even acknowledge the true "reason for the season." But they lack the joy of having the Living Christ in their Christmas. They lack the joy, love, peace, and hope that His active presence will produce in their life. So for them Christmas is so much less than it could be, and the promise of the season winds up being empty and disappointing.

The thing is: many such people just need a little encouragement to help them to respond to those "stirrings" that occur from time to time. They just may need an invitation to help them to overcome their own feelings of ambivalence toward their faith. And that is where we can do something to help them!

This is the perfect time of year to encourage them to come with you to church. People who don't ordinarily attend church are more willing to go at this time of year than any other. And by far the most effective means of encouraging people to attend is to invite them.

I encourage you to invite your friends and neighbors to come with you to worship during this Season of Advent. The Children's Pageant on December 13, and the Choir Christmas Cantata on December 18 would be especially good times to do that. Both offerings will be presented in both times of worship. And, of course, Christmas Eve would be an especially great time to invite someone! Again this year we will be having three times of Christmas Eve candlelight worship (5, 7, and 9 pm).

Sometimes it may take more than one invitation to help them know that you are serious in wanting them to come. So don't give up if they don't respond positively right away. They need to know that they not only are welcome but wanted here – because they not only are welcome, but they are wanted by the Lord.

Be His instrument of blessing this year for a friend or neighbor who otherwise may not experience the fuller joy of Christmas. Invite them!

May the Lord bless you and fill you with joy this special season.

In Christ's love,

	Actual	Budget	Actual	Budget
Receipts plus	$79,870	$85,275	$861,898	$864,529
Expenses	$83,306	$84,707	$808,882	$864,948

Mortgages	$1,408,038	$1,355,694	$52,344

The budget numbers in this report reflect the revision we made to our 2015 budget in July. After that revision, we still need $11,055 to fully pay our apportionments and we plan to fund our full apportionments with our Advent offering.

Our receipts for the year to date are $2,631 below the budget and our year to date expenses are $56,066 below the budget putting us $53,435 above the budget for the year.

We paid down our mortgages $52,344 so far this year, $43,929 from our budget and the remainder from contributions to the building fund and from interest saved because of early paydown of the mortgages.

Check the financial report under the members tab on the church's web site at <http://www.nwhillsumc.org/members.html>.

SPECIAL CHRISTMAS OFFERING

This year our special Christmas Offering will go to support the benevolence portion of our "Apportionments." Our apportioned giving through the United Methodist Church enables us to participate in so many more ministries around the world than we could as an individual church. Through our Apportionments, we are able to support missionaries, provide Bibles, feed children, help refugees, educate young adults, and truly be Christ's presence "to the ends of the earth."

Please consider giving a gift that will make a difference in the lives of people all around the world. Any excess received will go to support students at the Lydia Patterson Institute, a United Methodist supported school in El Paso, which provides education for those who otherwise would not receive one.

CUB SCOUT PACK 2 SERVICE PROJECT

Please join Cub Scouts Pack 2 on Sunday, December 6 as we collect items for the AUSTIN FREE STORE, a Capital District Ministry of the United Methodist Church. This is our Cub Scouts service project for the Bear rank. NWHUMC is our charter organization, and we very much appreciate the support the church has provided for us over the years. Our web site is: <http://pack2austin.com/home>

WHO AND WHAT IS AUSTIN FREE STORE?

MISSION: We believe that in God's world there is enough for all people, and extend that abundance by freely giving clothing and household goods to all who come through the FreeStore doors. Through this tangible grace, we affirm the self-worth of every person by creating opportunities for all people to live in community with one another.

METHOD: When our shop is open, all are welcome. "Members" will be enrolled and with guidelines based on family size, every item is freely offered. These "shop-ortunities" empower by giving the freedom to choose. Our model also encourages members to participate by either donating items back to the FreeStore or by volunteering in one of the many roles needed to extend the FreeStore experience to others.

Coffee is our most important day-to-day expense because we aren't just in the business of giving stuff away. We're building and building up the community. We linger near the coffee pot to listen and be heard, sometimes sharing prayers and songs and always extending warm hospitality and the chance to connect with other people and with God.

OUTCOMES: We believe the FreeStore has the power to change the world--or at least our corner of it! By intentionally gathering people who need and people who need to give, we are creating unique opportunities for capacity and community building. When we expand opportunity for people and their families, we foster an opportunity for deep change.

"Joy to the world! The Lord is come!" During the month of December, Northwest Hills UMC Music Ministry will be celebrating the birth of Jesus Christ with wonderful Christmas offerings of praise!

On December 6, the Ring of Faith will be joyfully ringing Christmas carols for the 11:15am worship service. On December 13 during both times of worship, the children will present a Christmas pageant titled "That's What Christmas Is About" with drama and music that you won't want to miss. On December 20 during both times of worship, the Chancel Choir, narrators, and a youth string ensemble will share "Joy to the World," a classic Christmas cantata with music from Handel's Messiah, Vivaldi's Gloria, Britten's Ceremony of Carols, and more Christmas favorites. Our Christmas Eve services will also be filled with beautiful music as we remember the night of Christ's birth. This December, "O come, let us adore Him" and celebrate the birth of our Savior together!

STEPHEN MINISTRY BLESSINGS

When Stephen Ministers were asked about the blessings they have received from being a part of the Stephen Ministry, here are some of their responses:

... Christ gave me the heart for other people; Stephen Ministry gave me the skills.

... The training has unlocked a sensitive, feeling part of me that I was unaware of before the training.

... I feel so connected and bonded to the other Stephen Ministers.

... Stephen Ministry has enhanced every relationship I have, and I now relate better to family, friends, and neighbors.

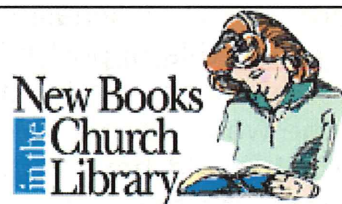

... The blessings I receive from being a caregiver are immeasurable.

... I now live a more Christ-centered life.

... I feel that Stephen Ministry is discipleship in action.

... I cannot imagine my life without Stephen Ministry!

A new class will start in January. If you would like to be a part of this class, contact the church office, any Stephen Minister, or Kathy Bouldin (512-345-5967) for more information.

The Battle Plan for Prayer: From Basic Training to Targeted Strategies.

This book was inspired by the Kendrick Brothers' new movie, War Room, and is designed to help anyone learn how to become a powerful person of prayer. It begins with prayer's core purpose, its biblical design, and its impact throughout history. Readers will be guided scripturally through the fundamentals of how effective prayer works, inspired towards a closer, more intimate relationship with God and shown how to develop specific prayer strategies for each area of life. If you want to experience the joy of mightily answered prayer, then it's time to engage with God at another level.

Prayer Corner

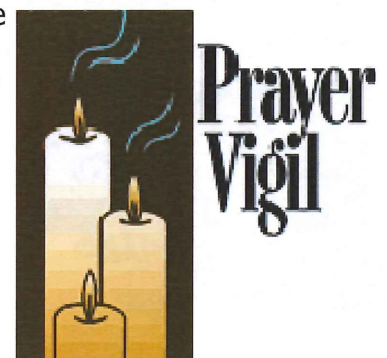

Although it is difficult to believe, almost a year has gone by since we began our participation in the "Unceasing Prayer" city-wide prayer vigil. I hope you have been as blessed through this opportunity for prayer as I have. Call me crazy, but I signed up for 3:00 am! And I am glad I did! It has been such a special time. At that time of the morning, the world seems so quiet and it is much easier for me to concentrate. Initially, I wondered if I would have a difficult time staying awake, but so far that has not been an issue. In fact, the thirty minute period seems to go by much faster than I anticipated.

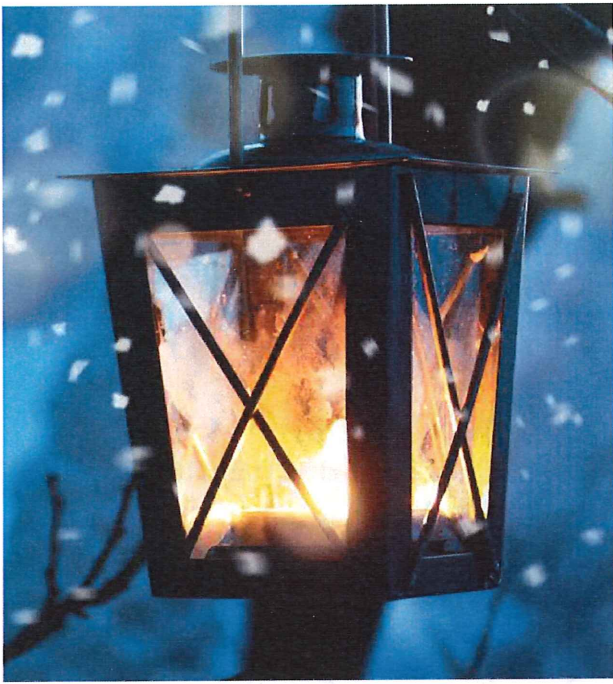

Now, as 2015 winds down, it is not too early to be looking forward to next year! As a church we recently committed to pray for our city for another year. So I ask that you give consideration to whether you will be willing and able to continue in this ministry for 2016.

Please think AND PRAY about it, and let me know of your intent.

Again, thank you so much for your dedication to this ministry.
