Season of Advent

First Sunday of Advent - Peace

Second Sunday of Advent - Love

Third Sunday of Advent - Joy

Fourth Sunday of Advent - Hope

During Advent, we prepare for, and anticipate, the "coming" of Christ. We remember the longing of Jews for a Messiah and our own longing for, and need of, forgiveness, salvation and a new beginning. Even as we look back and celebrate the birth of Jesus in a humble stable in Bethlehem, we also look forward anticipating the second coming of Christ as the fulfillment of all that was promised by his first coming.

The next four Sundays will be heart warming, spirit lifting and full of adoration and love for our Savior, be prepared to be blessed.

And my God will meet all our needs according to the riches of his glory in Christ Jesus.

Thank You to everyone who has already turned in their "Estimate of Giving" card for 2019. Your faithfulness is appreciated.

If you have yet to turn in your card, you are encouraged to do so. As we have heard in recent weeks, your gifts to God through this church allow God's work to be done within our church walls and far beyond. Please consider what you will plan to give to God in the year ahead, then bring your estimate of giving card to church next Sunday. You can place it in the offering plate at that time. You can also, of course, mail your card to the church office. The mailing address is 7050 Village Center Drive, Austin, 78731.

Special Communion Rail & Christmas Eve Offering

God gave us the most magnificent present of all when he took human form and came to dwell among us. We celebrate that great gift of love every Christmas. In gratitude and celebration of God's gift to us, our church will be giving away its entire Christmas Eve offering in an effort to share the love of God with others.

Our Christmas Eve offering will be given to two God-inspired charities:

Living Water International and Community First! Village.

Living Water International builds water wells that provide safe drinking water for some of the most impoverished communities in the world. In addition to providing clean drinking water, Living Water International shares a message about "living water"—the gospel of Jesus Christ—which alone satisfies the deepest thirst.

Click Here to learn more about this ministry or go to <https://water.cc/church>

Community First! Village is master planned community that provides affordable, permanent housing and a supportive community for the chronically homeless in Central Texas. This transformative residential program transforms the lives of our neighbors who have been living on the streets; it changes to lives of volunteers who live and work alongside of this community too.

Please consider giving a special offering this Christmas Eve to support God's work through Living Water International and Community First! Village. Should you choose to give, give with a glad and grateful heart.

Blessings

To Russia with Love

Cindy Stone's trip to Russia is one of my favorite stories this year so I saved it for our Christmas season. I couldn't help but name it "To Russia with Love". It seemed to me to make a complete circle of love as Cindy presented the Bob Ford stained glass art to the President of the UMC Moscow Theological Seminary.

Every year during our seminary meeting, Sergei invites one of the students to share the path they traveled to reach the decision to become a pastor. We're heard stories of tragedy, abandonment, addictions, and other suffering -- enough to make me wince -- mixed with the joy of discovery that God loves even them. Their yearning to understand more about God, Jesus, and the Holy Spirit led them, first to Bible study, then to formal education.

This year one of the students described how finding God and letting God find her changed her life. We all got a little teary-eyed, even more so when she said, "I feel like a tree that has been planted by the lake."

The water doesn't get much holier than that.

Rev. Vera Agapova has been serving Good News UMC since 1997, following the tragic death of her husband in an automobile accident. She believes the love and support of her Christian community led her to attend seminary and step into leadership at her church. She has organized outreach programs for orphans, the homeless, and others in need.

Christmas

As a child I could hardly wait for the arrival of Christmas and all of the festivities associated with the holiday season. I always wished for a "white Christmas" and most of the time my wish was granted. As I reflect back on those early days I am reminded of all the customs my family had. We had an advent calendar, put up our tree, bought and wrapped presents, invited friends and family in and prepared food for our holiday meal. However, the most important event and lasting impression I have is attending Christmas Eve services with my family. Hearing the Christmas story, watching the Youth pageant and singing our favorite hymns was the highlight of the season. It was always such a joyous occasion to come together with our church friends and have this time together.

What are the customs we observe today? Do we get so busy with all the details that we forget what the meaning of Christmas is all about? Are there so many parties to attend, gifts to buy, cooking to do that we can't relate to this most joyous season? Do we make sure our children and grandchildren know the Christmas story as Matthew and Luke tell it in the Bible?

How soon we forget the true meaning as we set our priorities on the on "other" things. Let's start this year by putting the birth of Christ as the true center of Christmas. Reading the Christmas story with family and friends, adorning your home with decorations that are a reminder of Christ and attending church. Traditions are a great way to pass down family values to your children who in turn will pass them to theirs and so on.

Let's shine our light on the amazing truth that, "The Word became flesh and made his dwelling among us" (John 1:14).

New ideas to celebrate Advent with children

Try this Advent chain — Make an Advent chain that includes ministry activities children can do. Make a link for each day from the first Sunday in Advent, Dec. 2, through Dec. 25. Symbolizing penitence and royalty, make purple links and a white link for Christmas Day. On each link, write an activity to do as a group or church or with parents or guardians. The possibilities are endless. Tailor the activities to your church's size and the needs of your community. Ideas include:

- Bake cookies for your local fire department.
- Make paper snowflakes.
- Do a good deed for your neighbor.
- Have each member of your family finish the sentence: "To me, Christmas means...."
- Read your favorite Christmas story.
- Drink cocoa from Christmas mugs.
- Make Christmas gift tags.

Make sure you bring your children and grandchildren and to the Christmas Events this month, and tell them they can bring a friend. A new tradition!

"The Clothes Closet for Homeless Men".

It is open Mondays (except holidays) from 9:00 AM until 11:30 AM, and has truly developed into a ministry. Each Monday is begun with a prayer prior to serving the customers. The prayer includes the words "God help us to see Christ in those we serve today and help us so they can see Christ in us".

It is cold season now and they need winter coats, winter gloves, knit caps, 30-36 jeans, 11-14 running shoes and large/extra large tee shirts. Bring them to the church lobby or church office.
